WLLS - Pyrolysis Sampling DQOs DRAFT FOR DISCUSSION 2015 07 07 for SwRI.xlsx

Jeff/Mary,

Working on setting up the SWRI call for Tuesday and will send out appointment once determined. Here is the most current version of the DQOs under development. I've also copied Tom as he may be getting pulled into this action item for the site as it goes forward.

Thanks,

Hi Brad,

It slipped my mind when you called that I'll be out of pocket on Monday taking a credentialing exam. I have a call and email into Mike Dammann with SwRI to see if he's available for a call on Tuesday. I'll let you know when I hear back.

Also, here's the latest DQO table that I shared with SwRI to get their input and to get them started on drafting procedures. The last column on the spreadsheet is probably of most interest to Mary and Jeff—it describes what we plan to infer (and not infer) from the results.

Rob
